Hello SKMB Family,

So much of the stories I have been hearing on the news are heart-breaking. The hurt and loss experienced by so many in Canada and around the world is indirectly a call for help to disciples of Jesus. We may be limited in ways to tangibly respond, but all of us can prostrate ourselves before the Father and appeal for His intervention. Our world needs miracles. Our world needs hope. And yes, our world needs, Jesus. Through prayer, we are a significant and impactful part of the Father's loving response to the present hurts of the world. - Phil Gunther

This is how we can PRAY... out side our box

That the devastating fires in BRITISH COLUMBIA my soon be extinguished.

That the damaging drought on the PRAIRIES might end and farmers and ranchers have adequate resources to cope with the loss of income.

That the people of HAITI would receive the resources needed to sustain them as they recover from a destructive earthquake.

That the Christians in AFGHANISTAN may be spared and that God would mercifully intervene in the affairs unfolding in the country.

That the COVID variants in CANADA would not bring new health restrictions.

That the GOSPEL would be advanced even as these tribulations unfold. "Surely the arm of the LORD is not too short to save, nor his ear too dull to hear."

Isaiah 59
